Squatters Rest

PRIVATE MUSEUM

Squatters Rest private museum is open to the public by arrangement so you too can experience this unique establishment. Surrounded by vintage tractors, engines and farm machinery there are 16 old style buildings, including a replica 1880 cook house, where we make the best billy tea and bushman's bread with cocky's joy.

Group bookings from 10 to 150 guests are catered for with a guided tour of our fascinating range of rural memorabilia and served morning and afternoon tea. Lunch is with billy tea and bushman's bread prepared in our 1880's style cook house, and while you soak up the atmosphere we will entertain you with pianola for singalongs, local musicians, bush dancing, great yarns and bush poetry.

Book your next group function now because it's always a memorable great day out at Squatters Rest.
